

This is your time

The format of a consultancy session is completely down to you and your needs as it is completely your time. We cannot stress that enough as within consultancy sessions, it is your moment to explore how you work with the children/ families in your care and how this affects you.

Confidentiality

Just like our therapeutic work, our consultancy sessions will be held in the strictest of confidence. This means that we can build a safe, non-judgmental and trusting relationship together to enable you to feel that sharing what is really going on for you/ the child/ the family is absolutely ok. We will follow the rules regarding any Safeguarding or Child Protection concerns and support you as needed should these arise.

Supporting Professionals to Support Others

The Bungalow Partnership

Who we are:

We are a registered charity whose aims are to support children, young people, and their families across the Tees Valley area. We are a self-sustaining organization which actively engages with Local Authorities, Schools, Public Health, Children's Services, and the Voluntary Sector to broaden the support available for families.

We have a long history of supporting school staff and professionals from the children and family workforces. We do this in a range of ways including training, supervision, Care to Share Support and Consultancy.

Our Training Offer:

Here at The Bungalow Partnership, we offer a wide range of training events and workshops that can be accessed for a nominal fee. Our training includes topics such as trauma, attachment, bereavement, autism, using art as a reflective tool and many other topics that can enhance practitioners Continuing Professional Development.

What we do:

Our team of highly experienced practitioners including Psychotherapists, Counsellors, Play Therapists, Art Therapists, Drama Therapists, Social Workers, Mental Health Consultants, Family Therapists and Clinical Supervisors provide a wide range of integrative therapeutic interventions and can offer consultation and supervision to professionals wanting to explore the needs of the children they support.

We have a team of supervisors and therapists with expertise in child development, developmental trauma, attachment, complex bereavement, Autism, Complex needs, and many other areas. We support Professionals to explore their work, remain emotionally regulated for the children in their care and to explore new methods and responses for supporting children in need.

Our consultancy can be offered at your school/ service or here at the Bungalow Partnership.

What is Consultancy?

Consultancy is a space wherein a Professional/ team/ service is supported to acquire a new and expanded insight into the needs of an individual and within which, professional advice, guidance and support is offered

At times, the Consultant will challenge the professional/ team/ service to think of alternative ways of working with a child or family. The final aim is for the Consultant to enhance the Competence, skills, and confidence of the professional/ team/ service.

How we will provide Consultancy for you:

Consultancy can be tailored to your individual/ organisational needs. This can be a one-off consultancy meeting or a series of consultancy sessions (depending on need). When you contact the service, we will explore what level of consultancy best meets your needs and budget.
